

Saturday, October 10. 2009

Where Can I Find Good Candidates for State Office?

It can be difficult to find good candidates for state office. Often, campaigns for state office don't have the funds, and therefore the publicity, to become widely known. However, one good source can be found over at the Tenth Amendment Center.

The Tenth Amendment Center has a Tenth Amendment Pledge. There are actually two "flavors" - the state and the federal.

For our purposes, we are interested in the 10th Amendment State Pledge. However, the current list of Tenth Amendment Pledge Signers lists both state and federal candidates.

It is encouraging to see that California has two candidates - Adnan Shahab (CA-20) and Kathleen Suzy Evans (CA-40) who have signed the pledge. You can see Adnan's pledge here and Suzy's here.

You will also notice that there are many states where no officials or candidates have signed the pledge. Hopefully, some of you reading this will take the initiative and encourage your officials and/or candidates to sign the pledge.

It is time to hold officials and candidates accountable. A good first step is to get their commitment to uphold the rights reserved to the states and the people in the 10th Amendment.

Posted by Terry Kinder in Blog at 03:05

Terry,

Great site. I couldn't find an email for you so I'll leave it here. Hope you don't mind.

I put you on our humble mob roll: <http://www.thats-right.com/the-mob/>

I hope you'll think us worthy of yours.

Keep up the great work.

In the struggle, I remain,

Russ

<http://www.thats-right.com/rapid-fire-rightness/>

Comment (1)

Anonymous on Dec 15 2009, 22:39